

The Hero Two Doors Down
by Sharon Robinson
Historical Fiction
202 pages
Imagine finding out that your baseball hero has moved into your neighborhood. Stephen Satlow is an 8 year-old boy in 1948 when Jackie Robinson moves into Stephen's Brooklyn neighborhood. The novel is based on the real-life friendship between Stephen and Jackie. Sharon Robinson, Jackie's daughter, authored the novel.

Kimchi & Calamari
by Rose Kent Realistic Fiction
220 pages
Adopted from Korea by his Italian parents, 14 year-old Joseph Calderaro is assigned an essay to write about his ancestors' journey to America. The problem is that he has no information about his family in Korea. Joseph attempts to gather information about his Korean roots for the project and learns some valuable lessons along the way.

PARP – Parents As Reading Partners

Wednesday
April 25, 2018
7:00-8:00PM
MSS Auditorium

For more information
check out the MSS Library website

All families must sign up to attend the Parent-Child Book Club on April 25th

Use this link to sign up:
<https://goo.gl/d5aN7X>

Refreshments...Plus a free book for each child

Rules
by Cynthia
Lord Realistic Fiction
200 pages
Catherine has spent years teaching the rules to her younger brother, David, who is autistic. The rules help David to understand his world. She feels devotion to him as well as impatience with him. Catherine meets new friends over summer vacation. The new relationships have a few surprising twists testing her definition of true friendship.

Shadow
by Michael Morpurgo SHADOW
Historical Fiction
180 pages

Shadow is a sniffer dog, trained to alert soldiers of possible danger. Shadow bonds with Aman, a young boy in Afghanistan, after Shadow is separated from her British Army unit. Will Aman and his mother loose their faithful companion as they try to escape Afghanistan?