

The Horsemen PTA and Rivertown Parents present

Screenagers

Growing Up in the Digital Age

Targeted to both parents and their children, this documentary explores how technology impacts children's development and the challenges of parenting in the digital world.

Through poignant and unexpectedly funny stories, along with surprising insights from authors, psychologists, and brain scientists, SCREENAGERS offers solutions on how adults can empower children to best navigate the digital world and find balance.

Panel Discussion

Immediately Following the Screening with:

Amber da Silva-Barron

Licensed Clinical Social Worker

Jean O'Brien

Technology Specialist – Tarrytown Union Free School District

Amy Walsh

Social Worker for Tarrytown Union Free School District

***Wednesday, February 15 at 7:00pm*****

Sleepy Hollow High School Auditorium

210 North Broadway, Sleepy Hollow

The movie will have Spanish subtitles - panel discussion after the screening will be translated.
Open to all parents, and students grades four and higher
Free admission and parking